W.P.No.24848 of 2000

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking Certiorari to call for the records connected with Proceedings Ref.No.B1/485/98 dated 23.1.1999 of the third respondent as confirmed by the second respondent in Appeal No.4/99 dated 19.8.1999, and further confirmed by the first respondent in Revision Petition No.4/99 dated 25.4.2000.

It seems the petitioner was the fair price shop dealer of Vijayanagar Colony of Hyderabad city. When he has committed certain irregularities, a show cause notice was issued and after conducting a detailed enquiry and examining the cardholders, the competent authority gave a categorical finding that the petitioner has committed certain irregularities in distribution of essential commodities particularly lifting of kerosene oil by making false entries in the registers etc. and since the charges were very grave in nature and proved, the third respondent-District Supply Officer passed orders on 23.1.1999 cancelling the licence of the petitioner. Aggrieved by the same, petitioner filed appeal before the second respondent-Chief Rationing Officer, Hyderabad. The second respondent after perusing the order of the third respondent and after considering the material available on record, confirmed the order passed by the third respondent. Aggrieved by the same, petitioner filed revision before the first respondent-Commissioner of Civil Supplies. Even the first respondent after examining each and every aspect of the matter, has dismissed the revision by confirming the orders passed by the second respondent.

I have perused the orders passed by the authorities below. The charges are very grave in nature and they have been dealt with properly by various authorities. Therefore, no interference can be made with such detailed and reasoned orders passed by the authorities. The writ petition is devoid of merits and therefore, is liable to be dismissed.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.
